

Ralph J. Arey, 82, eldest member of the YMCA of Los Angeles and for 30 years a board member at the East Los Angeles branch, reminisces over the "good old days," while David Widner, 6, youngest member, looks on. The pair got together at ceremonies Tuesday, when world-wide celebrations marked the founding of the YMCA—106 years ago.

Vacation of Shady Nook Alleys Made

Vacation of Alleys in Shady Nook Tract was authorized this week, when City Manager Stevens reported that no written communications had been received. City Manager Stevens explained that this was a small tract at Western Avenue between 228th Street and Sepulveda Boulevard, which had been recorded in 1912 and consisting of narrow lots, which prohibited development into a residential area. The subdivider plans to widen the streets from 40 feet to 60 feet and to re-subdivide, so that lots will conform to the 5000 square foot minimum or more; that he is deeding to the city considerable more street area than he is receiving from the vacation of the alleys.

Five Popular Concert Artists On Bell Hour

Five popular concert artists return for guest appearances on the July broadcasts of The Telephone Hour, it was announced today by A. B. Smith, manager of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. The program is presented each Monday evening at 9 p.m. over NBC stations.

The returning guest stars are John Charles Thomas, Lucile Cummings, Oscar Levant, Barbara Gibson and Gladys Swarthout. Special music and accompaniment for the artists will be provided by Donald Voorhees and the Bell Telephone Orchestra.

Thomas, who will appear on July 3, is a well known baritone who additionally has aided and encouraged many American composers in the furtherance of their careers. On July 10, Miss Cummings, contralto, has selected "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" from Saint-Saens' "Samson and Delilah" as one of her selections.

Levant, famous pianist, will play variations of Gershwin's "I Got Rhythm" on the July 17 broadcast. The program of July 24 features Miss Gibson, coloratura soprano. Included among her repertoire will be "Una voce poco fa" from Rossini's "Barber of Seville."

On July 31, Miss Swarthout, world-renowned mezzo-soprano, has chosen "O Promise Me" from
